Fasting and Abstinence

The Catholic Church calls all believers to certain practices that emphasize the communal nature of repentance, especially during the Lenten season. These common practices include:

Fasting and Abstinence on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday:

Traditionally, fasting consists of eating only one meal, with the possibility of two smaller snacks that do not add up to a single full meal.

Abstinence from Meat on Fridays: Canon 1251 specifies that Catholics refrain from eating meat on Fridays, as an act of penitence. In the United States, Catholics are permitted to substitute another penance outside of the season of Lent. During Lent, however, all Catholics are obliged not to eat meat on Fridays.

Penance during Lent: The season of Lent is a penitential time, and should be marked by some form of self-denial. The law of abstinence applies to all persons over the age of fourteen; the law of fasting applies to those between the age of 18 and 59.

www.archatl.com/offices/odw/fasting.html

During the season of Lent, we are called to embrace penances and to perform works of charity that reflect our willingness to conversion of heart. Let us all pray fervently for those Catechumens and Candidates who will celebrate the Easter Sacraments with us this year. May this Lent lead us all to a deeper union in Christ with one another.

Father Peter and the community of St. Peter Chanel wish to extend their deepest sympathy to: Linda and John Zuras and family on the death of their aunts, Sue Smith and Joan Dunn; Greg Norris and family on the death of his mother, Joan Norris; Chuck Jackson and family on the death of his aunt, Virginia Farro; Trish O'Neill and family on the death of her father, John Mullis and Carol Kapteyn and family on the death of her aunt, Martha Costi. May they now share in Eternal Glory and their loved ones receive God's consolation and peace.

Mission statement: Nourishing the Body of Christ by nurturing one another through the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

Furnishing the Kingdom

While sitting in the Church and Adoration Chapel we are sometimes blinded by the bright sunlight streaming in the windows. We might not focus on the light which we are called to be to the entire world. The Holy Spirit is brighter than the sunlight that is beaming in the windows. When we are filled with the Holy Spirit we become beacons to the world.

The variety of colors from which the windows are painted will illuminate from the inside out. The light of our faith will burn brightly inside of St. Peter Chanel and soon all will see—not clear glass, but the spectrum of colors which represent the fullness of our faith.

The stained glass windows will be installed once they have been sponsored. The three windows, pictured above, are located in the Our Lady of Perpetual Help Adoration Chapel. These windows will contain the “Scenes from the Life of St. Peter Chanel.” Each window will have two memorial inscriptions in the bottom of the window and the cost is $85,000/ per window. Our Church will be a living memorial where those who help in building it will leave something to the world that is eternal.

“You are the light of the world. A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden. Nor do they light a lamp and then put it under a bushel basket; it is set on a lampstand, where it gives light to all in the house. Just so, your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father.”
 Matthew 5: 14-16

Please contact Eileen Homire, our Director of Development, to discuss the windows or any items to be memorialized. Eileen can be reached by email ehomire@stpeterchanel.org or phone 678-832-1211.

Living a Joy-filled Marriage

Ever gotten the feeling from someone that marriage and the body and even sex are less-than-holy or just necessary evils? Truth is, these are great things and, get this, even called to image God! By looking at our bodies and sex we can learn a lot about who God is, and by looking at God's goodness we can learn a lot about whom we are as male and female and the call to become "one flesh." Sex is the invitation in marriage to passionately express God's mystery of love. In his first talk, national speaker on the Theology of the Body, Tom McCabe, will unpack in an engaging and straightforward way, how the body and sex are a revelation of God and how to use this knowledge to foster a joy-filled marriage. His second talk of the evening will provide practical information and insight to living out the marital covenant in the way God planned for you. For more information contact Deacon Mike Bickerstaff at mbickerstaff@stpeterchanel.org or 678-832-1228

How do I become Catholic?

We welcome anyone interested in joining the Catholic Church. Each year we conduct two series of classes that lead people through the process of coming into the Catholic Church.

Both series of classes are part of the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA). This is not a program, but rather a process by which adults, after hearing the mystery and good news of Jesus Christ proclaimed, seek to enter the way of faith and conversion within the Church as guided by the Holy Spirit who opens their hearts. Every person is different, but all need to take that first step and we hope and pray that you do.

We are here to serve and help you. Please visit our website and download, print and complete the R.C.I.A. Information Form. For more information or to schedule a meeting, please contact Deacon Mike Bickerstaff, Director Adult Ed & RCIA at the contact information listed above.

Always be ready to give an explanation to anyone who asks you for a reason for your hope... (1 Peter 3:15)

PRO LIFE MINISTRY

678-832-1281 # 7014 prolife@stpeterchanel.org

Mary Immaculate helps us to rediscover and defend what lies within people. ... Our Lady teaches us to be open to God's action and to see others as He sees them: starting with the heart. And to look at them with compassion, with love, with infinite tenderness, especially those who are lonely, despised, or exploited.

~ Pope Benedict XVI, Address on the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception (Dec. 8, 2009)

FROM THE BUSINESS OFFICE

St. Peter Chanel offers Electronic Giving for your convenience.

Save time, simplify your life, and support our church. We're keeping up with the times by offering our parishioners a new way to make contributions. Our Electronic Giving program is an automated program that will allow you to make contributions without having to write a check or reach into your wallet for cash.

It is fast, safe and easy! The electronic transfer will cost you nothing and you save the cost of a check. St. Peter Chanel will continue to issue a donation statement each year for your tax records. Your bank or credit/debit card statements will provide you with a record of transfer as additional proof of your contributions. Please visit our website at www.stpeterchanel.org for further details.

Please consider remembering
St. Peter Chanel Catholic Church in your Will.

The Offertory report for last weekend was not available due to early transmittal of this bulletin.

We do, however, thank you for your generosity and support.

SECOND COLLECTION

The Archdiocese publishes the weekly Georgia Bulletin to give you timely information from around the diocese. Next week's second collection is for the GA Bulletin. We ask that you consider donating $18 for a year's subscription to this Catholic newspaper. St. Peter Chanel is assessed this amount for the subscription, and your donations help to offset the total cost.

Creative Ways to Make a Gift to St. Peter Chanel

Congress has created special incentives to individuals who make gifts of real estate to charities. These include reduced income, estate and property taxes, avoidance of capital gains taxes and in some cases continued use of the contributed property during your life. To find out how to make a gift of real estate to St. Peter Chanel Catholic Church contact Diane Duquette at the Catholic Foundation of North Georgia: dduquette@cfnga.org or 404-497-9440. The Catholic Foundation will handle the whole gift transaction for the parish. For more information on other estate gifts go to www.archatl.com/giving/gp.

Around the Archdiocese and Community NewsAl-Anon Meetings

Are you troubled by a loved one's drinking? Did you grow up with a problem drinker? Al-Anon is for families, relatives and friends whose lives have been affected by someone else's drinking. The Al-Anon Family Group meets every Thursday night at 8:00 p.m. at SPC in classrooms 3/4.

Alcoholics Anonymous (AA)

An open meeting of Alcoholics Anonymous is held Friday nights at 8:00 p.m. in SPC classroom 1. If you are interested in AA's program of recovery from alcoholism you are welcome to attend. For more information contact Joseph at 770-650-7131.

Please patronize the advertisers who appear on the last three pages. It is through their support that this bulletin is made possible. Our bulletin is published free of charge to the parish. We thank all of you.

The Family Honor Program!
Friday evening, March 19th and Saturday, March 20th

The only Catholic program designed to help parents and middle schoolers connect on important life issues: peer pressure, self esteem and God's gift of sexuality!

Register by going to the SPC website and click on forms. Spaces for up to 40 families filling quickly!

For more information,
call Jennifer at 770-594-1234 or
Catherine at 770-645-2123.

The Fourth Annual Catholic Day at the Capitol

Faith in Action, will take place on Thursday, February 25th, from 8:30 – 2:30 p.m. Catholic Day at the Capitol will start with a legislative briefing at 8:30 a.m. at the Shrine of the Immaculate Conception. We will then proceed together to the Capitol to view the opening of the session and meet your legislators. The event is free, but registration is required so that we can communicate last minute changes. Please register by calling Joy Place at 404-885-7201 or online at www.archatl.com/offices/communications/catholicday.php.

Village of St. Joseph Counseling Services

They offer affordable, professional mental health counseling for children, adolescents, parents, individuals, couples and families. One of their counselors, Rev. Stewart Wilber, M.Div., LMSW, is available to provide counseling services here at St. Peter Chanel Parish. For more information or to schedule an appointment, please contact: Intake Line 404-733-3527.

St. John Bosco Academy, a Pre-K through 8th grade hybrid school combining three days of home instruction and two days of classroom instruction, is currently conducting tours on Tuesday mornings and accepting registrations for the 2010-2011 academic year. For more information, please visit www.sjbacademy.org or contact Julie Wilborn at 404-644-9716.

Blessed Trinity Junior Titans
